Adam J. Warhola is a shareholder with Dickie, McCamey, & Chilcote, P.C. and Chair of the Real Estate Group. He concentrates his practice in the litigation of clients in toxic tort matters, particularly asbestos. Serving as both national coordinating counsel and local counsel, he represents various companies in lawsuits involving claims for asbestos exposure. He has been involved in all phases of mass tort litigation in thousands of cases in Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Mr. Warhola also engages in the representation of various parties in both commercial and residential real estate transactions, including buyers, sellers, lenders, landlords, and tenants. He is a licensed Pennsylvania title insurance agent. Additionally, he has handled a wide variety of matters including real estate litigation, title insurance defense litigation, and title opinions for minerals, oil and gas.
