DMC Attorney Addresses Christian Legal Leaders in Nation's Capital

Forrest A. Norman, shareholder of Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. (DMC), spoke at the National Conference of the Christian Legal Society in Washington, D.C., on October 22, 2016. This annual meeting typically attracts leaders in the practice and study of law, defense of religious freedom, and provision of legal aid to the needy.

Mr. Norman, Founder and Chair of Dickie McCamey's Church Law Group, presented "Violence, Security, and Church Liability" to nearly 400 members of the non-denominational association. He discussed the legal responsibilities of the church and the potential liability the church faces when crime hits the establishment or its members. His experience spans over two decades representing churches, offering a full range of services including all aspects of tort litigation, property, and ecclesiastical disputes.

Mr. Norman earned his J.D. from Case Western University and is AV Preeminent® Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell®.
