Two Attorneys Welcomed in Columbus, Ohio

Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. ("DMC"), a Pittsburgh-based law firm, is pleased to announce the addition of two attorneys in its Columbus, Ohio, location. Richard J. Silk, Jr. and Megan H. Kleinman join the firm as associates.

Joseph J. Golian, Shareholder-in-Charge of the Columbus office, is thrilled about the growth of the firm – both the expansion of its professional staff and its locations. "We recently added New York and California to our geographical reach. Our Columbus office continues to expand to meet the needs of our clients. Mr. Silk and Ms. Kleinman bring their insight and experience to our construction, transportation, insurance, and employment practices."

Mr. Silk concentrates his practice in the areas of construction law, professional liability, transportation law, and the food and beverage industry. Prior to joining Dickie McCamey, Mr. Silk served as Assistant Attorney General for the Ohio Attorney General's Court of Claims Defense Section, Construction Litigation Group. He brings with him over 15 years of legal experience after earning his J.D. at The Ohio State University ("OSU") Moritz College of Law in 2000. He earned his bachelor's degree at OSU in 1996 and earned his M.S. at OSU, after law school.

Ms. Kleinman comes to DMC from an Ohio civil litigation firm. Prior to public practice, she had served as Senior Counsel for the Central Ohio Transit Authority ("COTA"), and before working at COTA, Ms. Kleinman was an Assistant Attorney General in both the Employment Law and Labor Relations Sections of the Ohio Attorney General. While at the Attorney General's Office, she was appointed to the Special Litigation Group. Ms. Kleinman focuses her practice in the areas of insurance defense and employment litigation and consultation. She earned her J.D. in 2004 at The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law after having attained her bachelor's degree at Duke University.
